Disastrous Triumphs: the Arab Spring five years on

Paolo Lembo, On UN special assignment to Burundi and former Director UN Regional Center for the Middle East

Friday 17 June 2016, 10:30 a.m.

Università Cattolica del Sacro Cuore
ASERI - Graduate School of Economics and International Relations
Via San Vittore 18, Milan

With:

Riccardo Redaelli, Director of the ASERI Master in Middle Eastern Studies

In 2011 the Arab World begun unravelling. What initially was euphoria quickly turned into chaos. Today we recognize that the unflinching tide of unorderly Middle East uprisings ignited an epochal transformation.

Paolo Lembo has been with the United Nations System since 1987, holding increasingly responsible positions in several assignments, related to complex emergencies. He was Head of Mission in Afghanistan, Azerbaijan, Algeria, Tajikistan, Kosovo, Kuwait, UAE, Iraq, Saudi Arabia, Yemen, Burundi and Director of the UNDP Regional Centre for Arab States. Mr. Lembo is a member of the Senior Advisory Board of the United Nations Peace University. He holds a Laurea cum Laude in Literature and an MA in Modern Drama from the University of Rome La Sapienza.

Participation is free. The presentation will be held in English.
